Librarian:

We are making an effort to help relieve the unemployment situation in our industry by offering to bind all library books at a low cost to you. Owing to business being so quiet at this time we can afford to offer you these very low prices.

May I call upon you and give you an estimate on any work that you have of this kind?

Thanking you, I am,

Yours very truly
R. Robt Skinsch

Gentlemen:    Attention: R. Robert Hirsch

Responding to your letter, I beg to advise you that we are very well taken care of by the firm that handles our binding and do not feel warranted in considering your proposal.

Very truly yours,
